

- parties hereto state that they have read and fully understand the significance of the terms set forth herein and have executed this compromise Conciliation Agreement freely and voluntarily. No party has been coerced, intimidated, threatened, or in any way forced to become a party to this Agreement.
- B. By signing this Agreement both Complainant and Respondent state that they have had the opportunity to seek legal counsel regarding the effects of this Agreement.
- C. This conciliation agreement fully and completely resolves all issues arising out of SHAC Case # H-1-22-008/HUD Case # 04-21-7535-8 through the effective date of this agreement. The Commission and the Charging Party will take no further legal action with respect to, and will not initiate any action pertaining to, the facts and events which led to the filing of the charge so long as the parties abide by the terms of this Conciliation Agreement.
- D. This Agreement, after the Commissioner of South Carolina Human Affairs Commission (SCHAC) has approved it, is binding upon all Respondents, their employees, successors, and all others in active concert with them in the ownership or operation of 201 Clarendon Place, Orangeburg, SC 29115.
- E. It is understood that, pursuant to Section 31-21-120 (D) of the South Carolina Code of Laws Fair Housing Law, upon approval of this Agreement by the Commissioner of SCHAC, it is a public document.
- F. This Agreement does not in any way limit or restrict SCHAC's authority to investigate any other complaint involving Respondents made pursuant to the Fair Housing Law, or any other law within SCHAC's jurisdiction.
- G. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes closure of the complaint at HUD and South Carolina Human Affairs Commission upon a determination that Complainant and Respondent have complied with the terms of the Agreement.

III. PROVISIONS FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST

In order to assure that the public interest is protected, Respondent, without admitting to any violation of the South Carolina Fair Housing Law or Federal Fair Housing Act, agrees to continue to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to assure the elimination of discriminatory housing practices and the prevention of their occurrence in the future, including, but not limited to the following:

- A. Respondent agrees to comply with all federal and state housing laws.
- B. Respondent agrees to apply consistently its standards for acceptance and rejection of housing applicants in an objective manner.
- C. Respondent agrees to allow any qualified person the right to purchase, rent, or occupy a dwelling regardless of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin.
- D. Respondent and Respondent's employees agree to attend Fair Housing training provided by the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission within six months from the date of the executed agreement. Respondents are responsible for scheduling training with Commission in the appropriate period in order to remain in compliance with this Agreement.

- E. Respondents shall create and implement Reasonable Accommodation policies, subject to review by the Commission, within three months of the date of this executed agreement. Respondents agree to cooperate with Commission employees on making recommended updates to the policies prior to implementation of the policies. Respondent will notify all new tenants and applicants of the policy as part of their application process. Respondents will send notice of the new policy to current tenants within 15 days of implementation.
- F. Complainant and Respondent agree that the Commission shall monitor compliance with the terms and conditions specified in this Agreement. As part of such monitoring, the Commission may inspect Respondents' pertinent records and practices and interview witnesses associated with the future compliance events described in this agreement. Respondent agrees to provide their full cooperation in any monitoring review undertaken by the Commission to ensure compliance with this Agreement.

IV. RELIEF FOR COMPLAINANT

- A. Respondent agrees to allow Complainant's emotional support animal on the property. Respondent will not charge a pet deposit or pet fees related to the animal.
- B. Respondent agrees that there shall be no discrimination or retaliation of any kind against Complainant or any person who assisted the Commission in the filing of this charge or in the investigation of this matter.

V. RELEASE BY COMPLAINANT

- A. Upon compliance with the terms of Paragraph IV through herein, Complainant agrees to release and forever discharge Respondent and Respondent's employees, agents, successors, insurers, and assigns from any and all claims which may be raised on account of the matters raised herein.

VI. BREACH OF CONCILIATED TERMS

- A. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to preclude the Commission and/or any aggrieved individual from bringing suit to enforce this Agreement in the event that Respondent fails to perform the promises and representations contained herein. Neither does it preclude the Commission from filing charges in the future concerning events occurring after the execution of this conciliation agreement. The Commission shall determine whether Respondent has complied with the terms of this agreement. In the event that the Commission determines that Respondent has not complied with the terms hereof, the Commission shall send written notice to Respondent and Respondent shall be given a reasonable time period to remedy such non-compliance.
- B. Complainant and Respondent agree that this Agreement may be used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding in which any of the parties allege a breach of this Agreement.
